

Axiom™ Patient Care Headwall

The Axiom™ Patient Care Headwall is a surface mounted headwall manufactured in a variety of configurations and sizes to meet the specific needs of the various areas in the hospital. Constructed of heavy-duty aluminum extrusions that are deep etched and clear anodized. Access panel color can be chosen from a wide variety of colors and textures including matching wall coverings. All services are connected at the top of the unit for single point connection. Axiom™ Headwalls are available in Single Section (as pictured) Dual section and Half wall.

Features

- Integrated vertical equipment tracks
- Available in a variety of colors and textures
- Flexible headwall designs—easily accepts customer options
- Durable, low maintenance construction
- Accepts all brands of medical gas outlets or nurse call systems

Options

- Nurse Call
- Code Blue
- Medical Gas Outlets
- Equipotential Grounding System
- Bed Bumpers
- Monitor Support
- Isolated Power
- Emergency Electrical Receptacles
- Normal Electrical Receptacles
- And many more

